ACTIVITIES BROADENING

Christian Association Plans.

YOUNG WOMEN'S CLASSES

Gymnasium Hours Scheduled and Arrangements for the Future Made.

The Young Women's Christian Association is rapidly settling down to work in its new home.

The rooms of the Association, on the third floor of Progress block, are open every week day from 9 a. m. until 5:30 p. m. The office hours of the secretary, Mrs. H. E. Coleman, are from 10 a. m. until 2 p. m. and 3 p. m. until 5:30 p. m. The rooms are also open Monday, Tuesday and Thursday evenings.

Any women lunching down town are invited to bring their lunches to the rooms at the noon hour. Ice water is always served, and tea and chocolate will be, on demand.

Women will be welcome at any time to use the rooms for rest, as a parlor for meeting friends, or for committee meetings. Any woman of good moral character may become a member of the Association. The fee is two dollars a year.

Miss Lillian Bacon, who holds the championship of Montreal as a gymnast, is the physical director. Miss Bacon is most highly recommended by Dr. R. Tait McKenzie, physical director of McGill University, and many others. Almost 450 young women were in her classes in Montreal and she was equally praised for her work and the interest she aroused in her students. The aim will be to develop the body symmetrically and to give healthful recreation.

The costume is a black or blue divided skirt, loose waist and tennis shoes. Medical certificates from the family physician, as to ability to enter the classes, will be required.

Physical work is a membership privilege. In addition a tuition fee of $10 for twenty-four lessons will be charged for the morning class and $5 for the same number of lessons for the afternoon and evening classes. The gymnastic program for the season is as follows:

Ladies—Tuesday and Saturday, 9:30 a. m. Girls—Monday and Thursday, 2 p. m. Ladies—Monday and Thursday, 4 p. m. Ladies—Monday and Thursday, 7:30 p. m. Other classes will be arranged, if needed. The morning class for ladies commences today. School girls need not be members of the Association in order to join the gymnastic classes. They may join by paying the tuition fee.

The educational classes are a membership privilege. The Association is very fortunate in being able to offer a course of Tennessee lectures by Mrs. W. F. Frenar. Eight lectures will be given before Christmas, beginning Saturday morning, October 27th, at 10:45 a. m. The subject of the first lecture will be, "The Life of Tennessee." The outline for the course will be presented at this meeting. The fee will be $2 for a course of eight lectures.

The Travel Club, now studying Holland, meets on Thursday at 7:30 o'clock. Any women interested will be gladly welcomed. Miss Susie Clark will this evening read a paper on "The History of Holland in Medieval Times." Miss Keary will also present a sketch of the city of Amsterdam.

A course of twelve lessons in embroidery will be given by Mrs. H. H. Williams. The fee is $2.50 for the course.

Other classes will be formed on demand and classes in stenography, Hawaiian and French are now being arranged.

Bible classes are being planned, and the secretary will be very glad to have those interested speak to her about the course. Meetings for women will be planned from time to time, especially during the week of prayer, in November, observed by the Association throughout the world.

The Flower Mission of the Association has followed its fortunes and now makes its headquarters in Progress block.

HAD FRIENDS IN GALVESTON.

Honolulu who had Worried Over Their Fate Hears Good News.

Editor Advertiser—The Bible says: "Boast not thyself of tomorrow, for thou knowest not what a day may bring forth." The wisdom and truth of the admonition are often verified in the experiences of life.

On the morning of September 8th, a few hours before the great storm which brought desolation and death to that city, a resident of Galveston, Texas, wrote a long letter to a friend in Honolulu. Near its close were the following passages: "We are all well and happy, and getting along nicely. The outlook for Galveston is very bright."

The storm and its dreadful results probably delayed the posting of the letter, for it did not reach this city until a few days ago, and with it came another written two weeks later stating that although the damage to their property had been great, the writer's family felt rich, because they had escaped with their lives, and uninjured.

Their house, it was stated, stood four feet above the ground, yet the water covered the main floors to the depth of eighteen inches, the mud and slime ruining everything they touched. Their chimneys and windows were destroyed, but they were fortunate in having life and shelter left.

To their friend here, who had thought sadly of them as among the heaps of disfigured corpses burned or thrown into the deep sea, the letters came almost as a message from beyond the grave.

Wife (to husband returning at 3 a. m.)—"What time is it, dear?" Husband—"One o'clock, I think." (Clock strikes three.) Wife—"Why, it just struck three, sir." Husband—"Ridiculous, my dear; that clock must stutter."—Ellegende Blatter.

"All the banners on Market street are for McKinley and Roosevelt," remarked a wily politician to his friend the other day. "But banners don't vote," replied the other. "No," agreed the politician, "but they show which way the wind blows."

"Do you see that very ordinary looking man over there?" "Yes; what of it?" "He's a man with a history." "A man with a history? What has he ever done?" "Nothing at all. He's selling the history by subscription."—Chicago Post.
